- Trees give shade for the benefit of others and while they stand up themselves in the Sun and endure heat, they produce fruits for others. The character of good man is like that of trees.

What is the use of this body if no use of it is made for the benefit of mankind? Sandal wood the more it is rubbed, the more scent it yields. Gold the more it is heated, the more brightly it shines. The men who are noble at heart, do not lose their qualities even in losing their lives. What difference does it make whether riches abide with them or not? What does it signify whether they die now or whether their lives are Prolonged. Life itself is unprofitable to a man who does not live for others to live, merely for the sake of living one's life is to live the life of dogs. Those who give their lives for the sake of others will dwell for ever in a world of happiness.
